Claim Rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 103:

The Examiner has rejected Claims 1-4, 18 and 19 as being obvious over certain applications and pending applications as described in the Table 1, above.

Accordingly, because the cited references were at the time the invention was made owned or subject to an obligation of assignment to AstraZeneca, Applicants take the position that the references cannot be cited against the present application and therefore that the rejection is obviated.

Claim Rejection for Double Patenting:

The Examiner has rejected Claims 1-4, 18 and 19 as being not patentably distinct from certain granted patents and copending applications. For clarity, Applicants provide below a Table showing the relationships of Applicants' patents and applications mentioned by the Examiner.

Applicants Docket No.	International Publication No.	US Application No.	US Publication No.	US Patent No.
A1695 (four divisional cases also filed)	WO 99/03859	09/171983		US6110914
A2090 & Div of A2090	WO 00/42044		US2003149065 US2005250802	US6995167
100559	None (not filed outside US)			US6569865
100332 (international counterpart of 100559)	WO 2002096912	None (not filed in US)
100694		10/511525
100695 (this application)		10/511535

Applicants respectfully request that the rejection for double patenting be held in abeyance until agreement has been reached on the patentability of claims.
